MRS. JANET MCBRIDE
... Slings for Furniture

Prize Puzzles Contest Winner

Any housewife would like to be the recipient of $2000 in brand new furniture, but consider the plight of Janet McBride, Torrance housewife and expectant mother, who has all that furniture coming, but no place to put it.

Mrs. McBride, of 21926 Vermont, wife of a corpsman at the U.S. Naval Hospital in San Diego, recently was named winner of a television show talent contest for Southern California housewives. As the winner she can pick up $2000 in new furniture including complete living room and bedroom sets, appliances, a TV and radio set.

But Mrs. McBride, who expects a child in November, is living with her mother in a trailer court while her husband is in the service. So she has no room for the prizes right now.

Vocalist, Guitarist
She is a western vocalist, guitarist and yodeler, who responded to a talent contest on Cliffie Stone's "Home Town Jamboree" program over KTLA, Channel 5. She won her first round competition returned to whip her adversaries in the semi-finals, then took the sweepstakes last Saturday on the show.

Mrs. McBride has participated in numerous western entertainment activities around this area and has sung with the Harbor Playboys group. She had had no professional experience prior to the contest, however.

She is a 1952 graduate of Narbonne High School. Her husband, Claude, was schooled at El Segundo and in Arkansas.

Los Angeles Company Gold's Furniture Co. Los Angeles, will award the furniture to the young housewife.

Although she appeared on TV three times during the run of the contest, Mrs. McBride still didn't own her own video set, until she won the contest. Now she'll be able to watch the Channel 5 western show on her own set—if she can find a place to put it in.

TRAINING COSTS
It costs the U.S. about $70,000 to train each military jet pilot.

Electricity is available to an estimated 98 percent of all the people of Sweden.
